

Firestop Commercial Caulker

Edmonton, Alberta

Our client has been a leader in the caulking and restoration industry for over 30 years and strives for excellence in safety, quality and performance on every project they work on. Our client values the right attitude when it comes to teamwork and caring about the work completed. They respect their team and expect the same values and respect as part of their company culture.

Position Summary

The Firestop Commercial Caulker must have experience in both interior and exterior caulking applications. Most work is located in the Edmonton area and hours of work are full-time.

Qualifications

- Minimum three years experience with caulking interior and exterior applications
- Minimum three years experience in the construction industry
- Must have a minimum of at least one of the following firestop training certifications:
 - 3M
 - Hilti
 - Tremco
- Must be able to install firestop materials (mineral wool, firestop caulking, collaring of pipes, and use a spray application properly)
- Must have the following current and valid certifications/tickets:
 - Class 5 Alberta Operator's Licence (current driver's abstract will be required)
 - Construction Safety Training System (CSTS)
 - Workplace Hazardous Material Information System (WHMIS)
 - Aerial Lift
 - Fall Arrest
 - First Aid
- Drug and alcohol testing and security background checks will be required for certain clients (such as the Canadian Forces, RCMP, etc.)

Skills

- Exceptional attention to detail and manual dexterity
- Fluent in English both in speaking and writing
- Ability to work independently
- Comfortable with taking direction

- Ability to work at heights
- Comfortable lifting up to 50 lbs
- Ability working in tight areas and be flexible

Responsibilities

- Presenting yourself professionally on a jobsite
- Driving safely to and from any job site
- Looking after company tools and equipment
- Loading and unloading tools material and equipment from company vehicles
- Working scaffold, swing stage, Arial lift, scissor lifts, while being competent and safe
- Cleaning tools and equipment
- Cleaning up after yourself on a jobsite
- Completing paperwork accurately and clearly marking work as completed
- Communicating clearly with superintendent on any job changes or updates
- Communicating with site superintendents, supervisors, etc., in a professional manner
- Cleaning company vehicles, shop and supplies when time allows, or requested by superintendent
- Preparing various caulking joints
- Caulking various caulking joints
- Caulking in various weather conditions from -25c tp+30c as required
- Ensuring you are wearing proper safety gear for the project you are on, at a minimum hardhats, safety glasses, visibility vests, steel-toed boots and as directed by superintendent or management staff
- Other responsibilities as required

Note: Proof of certifications/licenses and eligibility to work in Canada must be provided if requested.

Salary is commensurate to experience and includes a benefits package which will be detailed during the interview process.

If you are interested in this position, please forward your resume in CONFIDENCE to careers@kiyhr.ca. Please include telephone and e-mail contact information, along with full work experience and education in your submission.

We would like to thank all applicants for your interest. To ensure that the recruitment process for this position runs as smoothly and as quickly as possible, it is our policy to only contact successful candidates during the application stage.